CASH REGISTER
Model: CR-300

Description

The CR-300 (Cash Register Unit) series is a fully integrated system. It consists of Pentium Series CPU, "LED" amount display, Receipt printer, Cash drawer, & Contactless Ticket/Card reader with Read/ Write functions.

It is designed for data recording & revenue control. Generates varies reports & avoid counterfeit or duplicate attempts.

Technology

- . Interface linkage of all devices to CPU.
- . Contactless Reader with Read/Write function for ticket/card verification.

Features

- . International Standard Programmable Cash Register.
- . Multi functions of setting.
- . Restriction on ticket or card & rate setting.
- . Access code for the System.
- . All activities reports recorded down in the Hard-disk.
- . "LED" indication.
- . Spacious consumption.
- . The main CPU with Pentium series.

Options

. Special request of program is available.

Technical Data

Power consumption: 200W   Voltage: AC 200V

R.H.: 20% -98%.   Frequency: 50-60 Hz

Temperature: 0^0 to 50^0 C (Accessories may needed below 0^0 C).